

Cameron Hibbert

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/chibbert/>

Cameron is a father of a fourth grader at La Petite Ecole du Lycée Français de San Diego. His child has been studying at LFSD since 2016 and has been a board member since 2020.

Across 25 years of professional experience, Cameron is currently a senior commercial executive in the biotechnology industry in San Diego with extensive experience leading diverse teams and managing entrepreneurial and innovation driven businesses, with P&L responsibility. Track record in technology deployment, commercialization, and establishing new businesses through joint-ventures, partnerships, licensing, tolling and manufacturing. Highly experienced deal lead and negotiator. Sector focus and passion in renewables and sustainability. An international career spanning two decades, having lived across US, Europe and Australia, with various global leadership responsibilities. Degree in Chemical Engineering from Monash and a Master of Business Administration from MBS.